

2. Herod Philip, uncle and first husband of Herodias, was not a ruler.
3. Herodias left Herod Philip to marry his half-brother Herod Antipas, Tetrarch of Galilee & Perea.
4. John the Baptist rebuked Antipas for marrying Herodias, his brother's wife, while his brother was still alive—against the law of Moses.
5. Salome danced for Herod Antipas and, at Herodias's direction, requested the beheading of John the Baptist. Later she married her great-uncle Philip the Tetrarch.
6. Herod Antipas, Tetrarch of Galilee & Perea (r. 4 B.C.E.–39 C.E.), was Herodias's uncle and second husband. After Salome's dance and his rash promise, he executed John the Baptist. Much later he held part of Jesus' trial.
